Oversized and rude, fear is unwilling to share the heart with happiness and happiness complies. Have you ever seen the two together?

Can we be happy and afraid at the same time? Can we be clear thinking and afraid? Can we be confident and afraid? Can we be merciful and afraid?

No. Fear is the big bully in the high school hallway: brash, loud, and unproductive. For all the noise fear makes and room it takes, fear does little good.

Psalm 107:9 "He satisfies the longing soul, and fills the hungry with goodness."

Matthew 28:5-6 "The angel answered and said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified. He is not here: for He is risen, as He said."
